To The Man Of Moderate Means Who Really Means Business and Desires to Secure a Home on the Pay-Me-Your-Rent Plan.

Listen to this. I wish to talk to you in this advertisement just as I would if we were both standing on the property and looking at the house that you are going to purchase for your home.

Now it is presumed that you are now a renter and you know that the money that you are paying out each month is gone forever. It is true that you probably get value for the rent that you pay each month, but in buying a home you get all of that and more besides, for money that you pay is paid on a proposition that will bring you the security of a home later on and if this property is not good enough for you to live in always you can pay for this home and later on trade it on a better home.

I will sell you a five room house in right in the very heart of the city for ten hundred and eighty-five dollars; two hundred dollars cash and twenty dollars per month until you finish paying for the property. Now this is more than I would have charged you a few weeks ago, and if you wait a few weeks longer I will charge you more than this, because every home that I build increases the value of the property that I have left. Therefore, now is the time to act if you are interested at all. Now, you can figure out all the bad qualities of this property and come to me and I can show you two reasons why you should buy this property for every one that you can show me that you should not. Of course, if I fail to convince you, you need not buy and can continue to pay rent as you always have, but you will have to start somewhere and some time and it had as well be with me as some one else, and after you have looked everywhere else, have a look at mine, and I will be perfectly willing to abide by your decision. This property has water, gas and all the city improvements and is within three minutes of the Waldo hotel. If you are disposed to knock you will say that it is rough, rugged and not a good place to live, but if you are in earnest and really want a home, you can find more good things about Elk Terrace than any other spot in Clarksburg, for anything like the price. There are four houses under construction now and you will not be lonely there for you will see homes on all of the fourteen lots in a short time and they will be occupied by good people who are making a beginning in life and getting a home if ever so humble. These homes are not sold or rented to any one but the best American people of the white race. Come out to the property or call at my office.
